Hiring and Keeping Agricultural Workers

Presenter: John P. Hewlett

Ranch/Farm Management Specialist, University of Wyoming

Host: Dr. Jay Parsons

Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

DESCRIPTION:

Who manages the agricultural labor force? More people have a hand in management than most of us realize. Their roles and the names by which they are commonly known differ across the country, including: property owner, general manager, manager, ranch or crew supervisor, patrón, foreman, majordomo, lead man, crew boss, chief mechanic, jefe, office administrator, the owner's spouse, and many production employees whose informal influence much outweighs their job titles. This presentation provides insights into Staffing the Farm Business, Supervising Agricultural Work, and Managing Employee Performance. Comments are drawn from three chapters found in Ag Help Wanted - a 240+ page guide for owners and managers at every level of agricultural and horticultural operations.
